REISLER BACK FROM GOTHAM

Finds Welterweight King Is Suffering From Bad Case Of Cold Feet.

CHARLES J. BRILLI
The world's champion will exhibit his pugilistic wares in the Tulsa sporting club arena before and after the show.

An agreement to this effect was made yesterday by Matchmaker John Hicks, who has returned from New York, where he went to close the affair.

"It is this," he said in making his announcement, "that in the old Miske-Brennan battle which is set for April 28, I have secured what will prove to be the best card ever seen in the entire country. If this state now wants to hold up I will give any amount of gate money, waranted or otherwise."

Jack Britton, wearer of the bantamweight title, or Jack Britton, certainly recognized king of the welterweight class, the first champion to represent Johnny Kilbane, looks about among the 120-pounders, and while he may hold off, he will take the place of the others.

Prepared for Herman.
Ray Herman will be the opponent for Herman. Ray Laughlin will not oppose him, but Reisler is not certain when he will secure to send against the featherweight leader.

The whole program, so far as dates are concerned, is up to the air with the exception of the Miske-Brennan clash which yesterday was set for debut at Convention Hall on April 28.

Five bouts are to follow the battles with the Britton-Lauhlin scrap which had arranged originally for tomorrow night, providing Britton's other engagements will not interfere. Britton refuses to come out and let Lauhlin go to a decision with Lauhlin as long as there is a chance for him meeting Henry Leoni again because he needs no time to get his feet down in time to face the lightweight champion.

The proposed match with Leon and should fall through Morgan has promised to let Britton come to Tulsa and meet Lauhlin the second week in May.

Got One Explanation.
There is just one explanation for the Britton's failure to keep his agreement to meet K. C. Lauhlin this April 28.

WANO IS LEADING SLUGGER Indian Hit Safely First Three Times Up, Getting First Homerun.

BY LARRY DAILEY

Batting hard in the two final innings, the St. Louis Browns won from the Tulsa Oilers at McNeil's park yesterday, 5 to 4. Until the last two frames it was a thriller between both teams having a do-or-die chance to win.

By Page Hill Phelon.

Lippe and Murray were hit by consecutive batted balls in the fourth inning, something which rarely happens and never occurred before in the reconstitution of the oldest fan.

Hill Wano, Indian first baseman, who hit safely two times in yesterday's brief game, ran his total of consecutive blows to five against big league pitching, when he hit safely twice the first two times up and parked the ball his third trip yesterday. Wano's homerun was the first of the Oilers.

The Browns counted less in the opening stanza when Tidwell snubbed in center and seated on Gehrke's pitcher's mound. The Indians again started trouble in the third when Wano was given free transportation and scored on Gehrke's double to right.
William Blomquist sat down the left field foul line scored Gehrke.

The Browns did not tally again until the eighth when with the score at three-to-three, Sisk tripled and was brought home by Williams over the centerfield wall.

With two out and Bennett on second by virtue of a pass and a sacrifice hit by Smith, Covington became wild in the ninth, walking Sisk and Williams, thus filling the bases when Gehrke, who had been severed had Wano fielded Jacobsen's grounder on which Bennett called Sisk to go to third and Williams to second. Both scored on Brooklyn's single to left.

Wulf led with a double in Tulsa's first inning, went to third on Wano's single and scored on McNeil's tap to Koch which the latter felded slowly. Although this hit safely in each inning the oilers were unable to score any runs the first

Tulsa Defeated by Federal.

The Browns suffered a severe defeat at the hands of the Federal team yesterday afternoon. More than $1,000 was taken in the box office. Anxious to do their best for money raised to do their part as relief men, the players gave all they had to help the cause.
